

Recommended reading material:

1. <https://medium.com/@valeriiavoshchevska/a-reminder-social-media-is-still-a-thing-for-social-activism-bac31cb866e2>
2. James B. Stewart: Follow the Story. <https://www.amazon.co.uk/Follow-Story-Write-Successful-Nonfiction/dp/0684850672>
3. <https://www.wired.com/story/free-speech-issue-tech-turmoil-new-censorship/>
4. George Orwell's 1946 essay Politics and the English Language.
http://www.orwell.ru/library/essays/politics/english/e\_polit
5. Teju Cole's Letters to a Young Writer:
<https://wordfollowme.files.wordpress.com/2010/10/teju-cole-eight-letters-to-a-young-writer2.pdf>
6. <https://www.thebalancesmb.com/sample-magazine-query-or-pitch-letter-1360426>
7. Poynter's Six Questions to Ask Yourself About Your Story <https://www.poynter.org/news/6-questions-can-help-journalists-find-focus-tell-better-stories>